Greystones Sailing Club Parent / Guardian Code of Conduct

Purpose

This Code of Conduct has been developed to ensure that parents and guardians of children and young people attending activities at Greystones Sailing Club understand the standards of behaviour expected of them. Its aim is to support a safe, positive, inclusive, and enjoyable environment for all junior sailors.

Parents and Guardians must:

- Treat all instructors, volunteers, committee members, sailors, parents, and visitors with respect and courtesy at all times
- Support instructors and volunteers in delivering sailing activities safely and effectively
- Promote the Club's values of fair play, inclusion, respect, and enjoyment
- Encourage children to follow club rules, safety instructions, and the Junior Code of Conduct
- Communicate respectfully and constructively with instructors, officials, and committee members

Communication & Attendance:

- Inform the Senior Instructor or Course Organiser if your child:
  - Is unable to attend a session
  - Will arrive late or needs to leave early
  - Has any medical, additional, or support needs that the Club should be aware of
- Ensure children arrive punctually for sessions and are collected promptly at the end
- Ensure clear pick-up arrangements are in place and communicated to your child
- Refrain from distracting instructors during sessions unless urgent or necessary

Equipment & Preparation:

- Ensure children attend with appropriate sailing clothing and equipment, including:
  - Buoyancy aid
  - Wetsuit or suitable sailing clothing
  - Sailing footwear
  - Weather-appropriate outerwear (e.g. kag)
- Ensure all personal equipment is clearly labelled
- Inform instructors of any issues that may affect your child's participation

Behaviour & Conduct:

- Never demonstrate threatening, aggressive, abusive, or disrespectful behaviour

- Never use inappropriate language at the Club or during Club activities
- Respect the safety, welfare, and enjoyment of all children, not just your own
- Avoid applying pressure to children or instructors regarding performance or progression
- Follow club procedures for complaints or concerns, rather than addressing issues directly with children or other parents

Safety & Supervision:

Parents and guardians are reminded that Greystones Sailing Club provides instruction, supervision, and rescue cover only during officially organised Club activities, such as:

- Junior training courses
- Junior Sunday Sailing
- ISA courses
- Club racing and events

Outside of these organised activities and times, parents and guardians are solely responsible for the supervision, safety, and behaviour of their children, and the Club cannot accept responsibility for children or other persons not participating in Club-organised events.

Breaches of this Code:

Failure to comply with this Code of Conduct may result in:

- Informal discussion or reminder of expected behaviour
- Formal warning
- Restriction of parental involvement at activities
- Further action in line with Club and Irish Sailing disciplinary and safeguarding procedures
